Bilingual Nuptial Qurbana: wedding of Anija and George Njarakunnel

George Njarakunnel's introduction to Syriac chants was at the Bilingual Qurbana (English/Syriac) at the National Shrine and Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D. C. On September 7, 2013. (See Aramaic Project-66). A decade later, when George decided to marry a Syro Malabar woman from Kerala, he insisted on having a Syriac element in the nuptial qurbana. During our interview (Aramaic Project-148) George said he wanted to reconnect with the past by reviving the story of Syriac chants. Anija, his bride, went along with the idea. George's uncle, Dr. George Njarakunnel, officiated the wedding which took place at the newly renovated magnificent church at Ramapuram. We are grateful to George and Anija for granting permission to post this video on our channel.
